

Roland Park Country School
Athletic Hall of Fame
Nomination Form

Statement of Purpose:

The purpose of the RPCS Athletic Hall of Fame is to pay tribute and extend recognition to those individuals and/or teams who have made a significant contribution to RPCS athletics.

Criteria for Selection:

1. No athlete or team shall be considered for selection until ten years after graduation.
2. Any present or former RPCS coach or present or former member of the RPCS physical education department with ten years of service is eligible for induction to the RPCS Athletic Hall of Fame.
3. To be eligible, with the exception of coaches or members of the Physical Education Department, an individual must have received an RPCS diploma.
4. The individual or team should demonstrate such outstanding excellence in or service to a sport that there is no question as to the qualifications necessary for induction.
5. Qualifications and criteria should be based on the candidate's participation in or service to athletics during secondary school years at RPCS and could include athletic accomplishments after leaving RPCS and to women's sports in general.
6. Consideration shall be given for sportsmanship and personal conduct in life exemplifying the high ideals and spirit of RPCS.

Nomination/Selection Process:

Members and friends of the RPCS community may submit nominations for the Roland Park Country School Athletic Hall of Fame. Each nomination must include a brief biography of the nominee. The Alumnae Office can provide additional information. The Selection Committee shall review all nominations to ensure they meet the criteria, and then vote by written ballot. Inductees must receive a majority of the votes. Nominations will be carried over to the next induction year. In the inaugural year, inductees will be determined through the discretion of the Selection Committee. Every year afterwards a maximum of two candidates from each decade will be inducted, although every decade may not be represented. One coach per year will be inducted as warranted.
